WHAT'S THE BIG IDEA?

Transformation: a thorough and dramatic change

Change occurs in all stages and innumerable ways throughout our lives. When enough changes take place in one spot they culminate in transformations—of our bodies, ideas, mindsets, abilities, of the environments with which we interact, in the objects around us. Transformation has the potential to occur in any moment of experience and encounter when our insides come into contact with our outsides.In this session of Saturday Art School, students, with their teachers, will explore various aspects of transformation—in art, artmaking processes, and in their own experiences.
