SERVICE-LEARNING: COVID-19 COMMUNITY PARTNER ADDENDUM

The novel coronavirus, COVID-19, is a highly infectious, life-threatening disease declared by the World Health Organization to be a global pandemic. Nazareth College approves this service-learning course with the understanding that the Community Partner is following all applicable federal, state, and local requirements during the COVID-19 pandemic.

By signing below, the Community Partner agrees that it will:

- comply with all applicable federal, state, and local laws, regulations and mandates governing business operations during the COVID-19 pandemic;
- adhere to applicable guidance issued by the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (the “CDC”) or standards required by state or local law, regulation or mandate, whichever is more stringent;
- provide students with applicable site-specific health and safety policies, procedures, and rules related the COVID-19 pandemic; and
- provide training for students on how to use any Personal Protective Equipment (PPE) and/or other supplies that are required by the site during the COVID-19 pandemic.

SERVICE-LEARNING: COVID-19 STUDENT ADDENDUM

This Addendum addresses expectations for Nazareth College students who elect to participate in a service-learning course during the COVID-19 pandemic, including the obligation to adhere to all guidelines and directives established by their respective Community Partner. In order to promote a safe and healthy service-learning experience during this pandemic, all Nazareth College students have the right to:

1. Expect that the Community Partner for their service-learning course adheres to all applicable federal, state, and local laws, as well as CDC guidance.
2. Where applicable, participate in proper training and have access to any required Personal Protective Equipment (PPE) and supplies specific to the COVID-19 pandemic.
3. Access site-specific health and safety policies, procedures, and rules related to the COVID-19 pandemic.
4. Communicate concerns regarding safety practices at a given site to the faculty/course instructor and/or the Center for Service Learning.
5. Defer, refuse or terminate participation in a service-learning course for personal health or safety reasons (including reasons relating to the health and safety of family or household members).

Before taking such action, students will be required to communicate their decision to the College orally and in writing. Students will not incur academic penalty or adverse action if the deferral, refusal or self-termination decision is directly related to personal health or safety and occurs while the student is in good academic standing.

During the COVID-19 pandemic, the Community Partner may be required to follow certain federal, state, and local requirements in order to protect health and safety. Nazareth College does not exercise control over the Community Partner or the specific safety protocols adopted by the Community Partner in response to the COVID-19 pandemic. Nevertheless, Nazareth College expects that all students will follow the specific safety protocols established by the Community Partner. In addition, all Nazareth College students have the responsibility to:

1. Adhere to the current federal, state, and local recommendations, including recommendations regarding physical distancing, use of face coverings and/or PPE, and travel restrictions.
2. Immediately communicate concerns regarding safety practices in a given service-learning course to their faculty/course instructor and/or the Center for Service Learning.
3. Report to the faculty/course instructor and/or the Center for Service Learning if they have COVID-19 symptoms or have been exposed to persons with COVID-19, whether in the service-learning course or other environment. If this occurs, students should stay home and follow the current public health department protocol for COVID-19 exposures.
4. Comply with all applicable policies, procedures, and rules of the Community Partner,
