

Final Exam Schedule Fall 2017

Final examinations are scheduled according to the beginning time of your course. Find the time block in which your course start time falls within below and that will tell you the appropriate final exam block. Exams are held in the classroom that was used for the semester, except for the “Special Arrangement” exams. Special arrangement exams will be arranged by the end of September 2017.

 Please note that Graduate level daytime courses will not have their normal scheduled classrooms available during final exam week (December 11th-14th) and must follow the exam schedule below or make alternate room arrangements through the Registrar's Office. Graduate level courses scheduled after 4:00 pm follow their normal classroom schedule for exams and are not affected.*

 On-line Distance Learning courses do not have exams on campus.*

 Exams for evening classes are held during the assigned class time during final exam week. These include all classes that start at 4:00 PM or later.*

 There are more and more non-traditional days and times for scheduled classes, so there is the possibility of 2 exams being held at the same time. Please contact the Registrar's Office if this happens at ext. 2016 and we will re-schedule as necessary.*

Consult table below to determine when your final examination is scheduled for DAY classes.
