

SENIOR YEAR CHECKLIST

College search + planning tips

FALL

- Virtually or in person, plan to attend an info session and Nazareth College campus tour.
- Taking the SAT/ACT? Nazareth is test optional, so the SAT/ACT is not required. However, if you do plan to take the exam, check with your guidance counselor and plan accordingly.
- Connect with a Nazareth admissions counselor to be sure you are kept up to date with deadlines and procedures.
- Find out if your application requires an audition or portfolio review (music, dance, theatre, art), then schedule yours early and find out how to prepare.
- Determine if you are submitting Early Decision applications. Submit FAFSA by required deadline.
- Complete at least one application by Thanksgiving.

NAZARETH EARLY DECISION DEADLINE: November 15

WINTER

- Finish and submit your application.
- Have your high school send a transcript to the colleges you applied to online.
- Ask your guidance counselor to send a midsemester grade report.
- Act on the result of any Early Decision applications.

NAZARETH REGULAR DECISION PREFERRED DATE: January 1

NAZARETH REGULAR DECISION DEADLINE: February 1

SPRING

- Watch your mail for notifications.
- Visit Nazareth College one more time before accepting and notify your guidance counselor of your choice.
- Send your deposit by May 1.
- Prepare for and take any standardized tests like AP exams.
- Start looking for a summer job—save for college!
